

Interviewee Oral History Agreement
Historical Society of the District of Columbia Circuit
Oral History Agreement of Judge Frank Q. Nebeker

1. In consideration of the recording and preservation of my oral history memoir by the Historical Society of the district of Columbia Circuit, Washington, D.C., and its employees and agents (hereinafter "the Society"), I, Frank Q. Nebeker, do hereby grant and convey to the Society and its successors and assigns all of my rights, title, and interest in the tape recordings, digital recordings, transcripts, computer diskettes, and DVDs of the interviews of me as described in Schedule A hereto, including literary rights and copyrights. All copies of the tape recordings, digital recordings, transcripts, computer diskettes, and DVDs are subject to the same restrictions herein provided.

2. The transcript of the interview of me on July 14, 2005 and the tape recordings, digital recordings, transcripts, computer diskettes, and DVDs relating thereto shall be closed to all users during my life and the life of Hon. Theodore R. Newman, Jr., except with my express written permission or the express written permission of the executor of my estate.

3. I also reserve for myself and to the executor of my estate the right to use the tape recordings, digital recordings, transcripts, computer diskettes, and DVDs and their content as a resource for any book, pamphlet, article or other writing of which I or my executor may be the author or co-author.

4. Except as provided in paragraph 2 hereof, I authorize the Society to duplicate, edit, publish, including publication on the internet, and permit the use of said tape recordings, digital recordings, transcripts, computer diskettes, and DVDs in any manner that the Society considers appropriate, and I waive any claims I may have or acquire to any royalties from such use.
