

CARLINER, DAVID, lawyer; born Washington, DC, August 13, 1918; died 2007; son of Lewis and Cassie (Brooks) Carliner.

Married Miriam Kalter, Jan. 24, 1944 (deceased, Aug. 9, 1994); children: Geoffrey Owen and Deborah Joan. Office: 1150 Connecticut Ave, NW Washington DC 20036.

Education

Student American University, 1935-36; University of Virginia, 1936-38. Student in law, University of Virginia, 1938-40. L.L.B, National University, 1941. Bar: Va. 1940, D.C. 1946.

Employment

Attorney, JAG Office, Army Department, Washington, DC, 1946

Washington Representative, New Council American Business, Washington, DC, 1946-48

Private Practice of Law, Washington, DC, 1948-50

Partner, Wasserman and Carliner, Washington, DC, 1950-67

Of counsel, Chapman Duff and Lenzini, Washington, DC, 1968-74

Carliner and Gordon, Washington, DC, 1974-84

Carliner and Remes P.C., Washington, DC, 1984-2007

Lecturer, Foreign Service Institute, Department of State, USIA, Harvard University, 1985

Publications

Author, Rights of Aliens, 1977; co-author, The Rights of Aliens and Refugees, 1990.

Organizations

Member, National Board of Directors, ACLU, 1965-1983; General Counsel, ACLU, 1976-79; Chair, Board of Directors, ACLU of the National Capital Area, 1961-

Chair, International Human Rights Law Group, 1978-86

Co-Chair, Washington Home Rule Committee, 1966-70

Co-Chair, Committee for the D.C. Reorganization Plan, 1967-68

Chair, Washington Chapter and Member National Executive Council, American Jewish Committee, 1969-71

Member, National Advisory Council, Amnesty International, 1969 –

Member, Board of Directors, American Council for Nationalities Services, 1977-89

Trustee, International League for Human Rights trustee

Washington Institute, Values in Public Policy, 1984-88

Member, American Bar Association; Chair, Immigration and Nationality Committee of the Administrative Law Section, 1979-83; Member, Council of the Administrative Law Section, 1983-87

Brookings Institution Council, 1995

Federal Bar Association, Chair, American Immigration and Naturalization, 1961-62)

District of Columbia Bar, Vice Chair (opinions), Ethics Committee, 1974-76; Member, Board of Directors, 1980-83

Member, Virginia State Bar; American Law Institute; Association of Immigration, Nationality Lawyers; Cosmos Club (Washington); Women's National Democratic Club (Washington)

Awards

Recipient, Oliver Wendell Holmes Award, 1966

Immigration Law Lifetime Achievement Award, Center for Human Rights and Constitutional Law, 1994.