

MORTON HOLLANDER
1918-2008

Education:

Brooklyn College (1937)
Cum Laude

Columbia Law School (1941)
Law Review
Chief Justice of the Marshall Moot Court

Career:

Railroad Retirement Board
Legal Staff (1941-1942)

Office of Price Administration
Office of General Counsel (1942)

U.S. Army
Military Intelligence (1942 - 1946)

Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management Legal Staff (1946-1948)

Supreme Court Section of the Claims Division of the Justice Department
(which became the Appellate Section of the Civil Division in 1953)
Staff Attorney (1948-1957)
Assistant Chief of the Appellate Section (1957-1960)
Chief of the Appellate Section (1960-1980)

Department of Justice Coordinator of Iranian Asset Litigation (1979-1980)

Pro Bono Mediator D.C. Court of Appeals
1989 - 2008

Antioch Law School (now UDC Law School)
Adjunct Professor (1973 - 1981)

Georgetown University Law Center
Adjunct Professor (1976)

Barnett, Alagia & Carey
Of Counsel (1980 - 1983)

Benjamin Cardozo School of Law
Board of Directors 1979-1983

Pro Bono Representative of veterans before the Court of Veterans Appeals
(1986 - 2004)

Awards:

Justice Thomas C. Clark Award
D.C. Federal Bar Association (1973)

Department of Justice Attorney General's Award for Distinguished Service
(1969)

Distinguished Lecturer in Law
Antioch Law School (c. 1973)