

FLANNERY, THOMAS A.
United States District Judge
District of Columbia

Office address:
U.S. Courthouse
333 Constitution Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20001
Phone: (202) 273-0742

Born: Washington, D. C.
May 10, 1918

Judge Flannery was appointed United States District Judge for the District of Columbia on December 6, 1971, and entered on duty December 20, 1971. He graduated from the Columbus Law School (Catholic University) LL.B., 1940. He took senior judge status on May 10, 1985.

He served in the U.S. Army Air Force as a combat intelligence officer (European Theatre of Operations) 1942-1945; private practice of law and Department of Justice 1945-1950; Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Columbia, 1950-1962; partner, law firm of Hamilton and Hamilton, District of Columbia, 1962-1969; U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, 1969-1971.

Judge Flannery is married to the former Rita Sullivan and has two children: Thomas A. Flannery, Jr., and Irene Marie Flannery. He is a member of the American Bar Association and a Judicial Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers.

He has served on the Judicial Conference Committee on Administration of the Probation System, 1973-1979; Judicial Conference Committee on the Administration of the Magistrates System, 1982-1987; Federal Judicial Center's Committee to Study Criminal Jury Instructions, 1982-1987; Chairman, Judicial Conference Committee on Intercircuit Assignments, 1984-1990.