About the Artist

DANNI DAWSON

Danni Dawson received her BA and MFA degrees from George Washington University, and apprenticed with world-renowned painter, Nelson Shanks. Danni, a professional artist and teacher for over 45 years, has exhibited her paintings nationally and internationally, and has received many awards including the Allied Artist Award, the Salmagundi Painting Prize, the Audubon Award, and an award for painting from the National Academy of Art and Design. Her work has been featured in American Artist.

With hundreds of portraits to her credit, Danni Dawson has painted dignitaries, heads of major corporations, university officials, as well as members of the judicial system, the military, and medical communities. Most notable are Justice Sandra Day O'Connor for the Supreme Court of the United States, Frank Saul for Chevy Chase Bank, and Carla Hall, chef and co-host on ABC's The Chew. Danni's figure, still life, portrait paintings, and sculptures are displayed in collections throughout the world.

For Danni, portrait painting is special as it allows her to know people from different walks of life and backgrounds. With each portrait, she endeavors to give a penetrating insight of the subject by combining the individual's background and interests. She tries to draw the observer into the portrait rather than being a passive onlooker.

Danni is currently working on a piece of public sculpture for a park in Arlington County, Virginia.

Other examples of Danni Dawson's work can be found on her website: www.mosaya.com/stores/dannidawson/website/home.html
