

Curriculum Vitae

John W. Nields Jr.
Senior of Counsel
Covington & Burling LLP
850 10th Street., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001

Tel: 202-662-5058 (o)
202-236-5530 (c)
Email: jniields@cov.com

I. Public Service

- 1969-74 Assistant United States Attorney, Southern District of New York.
Chief Appellate Attorney 1972-73, responsible for criminal appeals before the Second Circuit.
Chief, Civil Division 1973-74.
- 1974-77 Law clerk to Supreme Court Justice Byron R. White.
- 1977-79 Chief Counsel, Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, United States House of Representatives, responsible for Korean Influence Investigation, including public hearings and four disciplinary trials of sitting members of Congress.
- 1979-80 Special Counsel, United States Department of Justice, U.S. v. Mark Felt et ano.
Successfully prosecuted second and third ranking officials of FBI for secretly authorizing warrantless break-ins into homes of innocent U.S. citizens, copying their private documents, and falsifying FBI records to conceal the manner in which the documents were obtained, all in violation of the Fourth Amendment.
Witnesses at the six week trial included four former U.S. Attorney Generals and a former President of the United States.
- 1987 Chief Counsel, U.S. House of Representatives Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran (Iran/Contra Affair). Responsible for investigation, and lengthy public hearings.
- 1991-92 Special Counsel for Rhode Island's Select Commission to Investigate the Failure of Risk-Insured Financial Institutions. The Commission investigated the causes for the collapse and closure of the State of Rhode Island's state-insured banking system; issued a report; and held sixteen weeks of locally televised hearings.

II. Private Practice

- 1979-2011 Partner Howrey & Simon, specializing in white collar criminal defense and complex antitrust cases.
- 2011-Present Senior Of Counsel, Covington & Burling, specializing in white collar defense, and complex antitrust cases.

III. Professional Activities

- 2000-01 President, D.C. Bar
- 2002-2008 Chair, D.C. Pro Bono Program
- Current Member, American College of Trial Lawyers

IV. Pro Bono

- 1985 Led a successful challenge to an HHS regulation that would have required federally funded birth control clinics to notify parents before prescribing birth control to teenagers.
- 1989-1991 Represented a class of homeless persons seeking to enforce rights under the District of Columbia Right to Overnight Shelter Law. Obtained preliminary injunction, consent decree, and several contempt fines totaling $4 million, that were placed in a trust for the benefit of homeless people, resulting in 400 new units of housing.

Education

B.A. Yale University 1964
LLB University of Pennsylvania Law School 1967