

INTERVIEWEE ORAL HISTORY AGREEMENT

Historical Society of the District of Columbia Circuit

Oral History Agreement of Stanley Sporkin

1. In consideration of the recording and preservation of my oral history memoir by the Historical Society of the District of Columbia Circuit, Washington, D.C., and its employees and agents (hereinafter "the Society"), I, Stanley Sporkin, do hereby grant and convey to the Society and its successors and assigns all of my rights, title, and interest in the tape recordings, transcripts and computer diskette of my interviews as described in Schedule A hereto, including literary rights and copyrights. All copies of the tapes, transcripts and diskette are subject to the same restrictions herein provided.

2. I also reserve for myself and to the executor of my estate the right to use the tapes, transcripts and diskette and their content as a resource for any book, pamphlet, article or other writing or for any other purpose.

3. It is my intention in the future to authorize the Society to duplicate, publish, including publication on the internet, or permit the use of said tape recordings, transcripts and diskette in any manner that the Society considers appropriate, and I waive any claims I may have or acquire to any royalties from such use. I will advise you in writing when such authorization shall become effective. Meantime, the Society is advised that such authorization shall in any event become effective immediately upon the event of my death.
