HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CIRCUIT

Agreement Respecting Oral History of Stephen F. Williams

1. In consideration of the recording and preservation of the oral history memoir of Stephen F. Williams by the Historical Society of the District of Columbia Circuit, Washington, D.C., and its employees and agents (hereinafter "the Society"), I, Faith Williams, wife and personal representative of the estate of Stephen F. Williams, appointed March 3, 2021 by order of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia Probate Division, do hereby grant and convey to the Society and its successors and assigns all of the rights, title, and interest in the voice recordings and edited transcripts of the five interviews of Stephen F. Williams identified in Schedule A attached hereto, as well as the unedited transcript of the fifth interview, including literary rights and copyrights. All copies of the voice recordings and transcripts are subject to the same restrictions herein provided.

2. I understand that the Society may duplicate, edit, or publish in any form or format, including publication on the Internet, and permit the use of said edited transcripts in any manner that the Society considers appropriate, and I waive any claims the estate may have or acquire to any royalties from such use.

3. The voice recordings and unedited transcript of the fifth interview shall not be made available to anyone other than myself, my daughter Sarah Williams, and the Historical Society without my express written permission or the written permission of my daughter Sarah Williams until January 1, 2051.

4. I reserve for the estate, my daughter Sarah Williams, and anyone else whom I, acting as personal representative of the estate, may designate in writing the right to use the said voice recordings and transcripts of the five interviews.
